Notes

1. This journal only accepts manuscripts from those who have submitted an entry request through the system. If you intend to submit a paper, please make sure to complete entry by the designated date and time.

[For those who have entered the journal]

2. Please check the "Relevant Documents" on the Society's website and download the necessary documents.

3. The deadline for submission of manuscripts is Friday, September 8, 2023, at 12:00. There is no "Receipt period" for manuscripts, so you may submit your manuscript any time before the submission deadline (please note, however, that reviewing will not begin until the end of the Editorial Board meeting after the submission deadline).
