Note: Please comply with the following. Manuscripts with substantial discrepancies may not be considered for peer review.

(1) Please check the latest writing rules (Instructions to Authors) before preparing your manuscript.

Please pay particular attention to important requirements such as the manuscript volume and referencing format. The volume of the manuscript should be entered directly in the system at the time of submission, the number of pages to be printed will be estimated. If the number of pages exceeds 20% of the total number of pages, the manuscript will not be accepted for submission.

Please also note, if the number of words in the abstract is more than 20% over the amount stipulated in the rule, you will not be able to submit your manuscript.

(2) The manuscript format can be downloaded from the Society's website.

(3) At the deadline, the system will automatically close and no longer accept submissions.
